

US Subsidiary's Acquisition of Equity Interest of US Joint Venture Company

Tokyo, February 1, 2017—Calbee, Inc. (hereafter “Calbee”) resolved on January 23, 2017 that Calbee America, Inc. (hereafter “CAI”) would acquire the entire equity interest held by R.D. Offutt Company (hereafter “RDO”) in Calbee North America, LLC (hereafter “CNA”), of which previously RDO and CAI each held a 50/50 interest. This transaction was completed on January 31, 2017, making CNA a fully-owned subsidiary of CAI.

1. Reason for acquisition of equity interest

In 2006 Calbee established a joint venture with RDO, a major potato producer, to produce materials for Calbee's potato-based snack product Jagabee, with the aim of acquiring business knowhow in the US and securing stable supply of raw materials. In 2012, with the aim of further strengthening the North American snack business, CAI's snack foods manufacturing and selling business was transferred to the joint venture, which was renamed CNA. CNA's sales have grown substantially since it was established, and having fulfilled its objectives, the joint venture between Calbee and RDO was dissolved to enable both parties to pursue their own growth strategies. As a fully-owned subsidiary of Calbee Group, CNA will utilize its knowhow in product development, production and marketing as it aims to become a company with 50 billion yen sales in North America.
